

Project WILD Workshop
Facilitated By: Rob Ridley, Field Centres Coordinator, Peel
District School Board
At the Jack Smythe Field Centre
Cost: $50.85/participant

Date: Tuesday, November 2, 2010
4:30-9:30 p.m.

Eighty-five thousand Canadian educators can't be wrong. They all participate in Project WILD. Teachers, parents, and students praise this popular conservation education program. Project WILD teachers have instructed millions of Canadian students, from kindergarten through high school. From Scouts to Guides. For over twenty years the program has been a wonderful asset to any educators wanting to introduce environmental principles.

Participants will receive the Project WILD Activity Guide as well as links to the Ontario curriculum or Badge programs for Scouting.

Come join Rob Ridley, facilitator of the workshop and Coordinator of the Peel District School Board's Outdoor Education facilities in the fun!

For more information, or to register, please email the facilitator. Payment, can be made in cheque form to the Canadian Wildlife Federation.
