

NATIVE PRAIRIE INSECTS

Saskatchewan Watershed Authority - Native Prairie Activity Guide 2007

Image courtesy Saskatchewan Environment

Two Stripe Grasshopper

- Green with a long, narrow body and two stripes on its back.
- Found in dry areas beside roads and in fields.
- Has chewing mouth parts to eat grasses and crops.
- Has large powerful hind legs for jumping.
- Eggs look like brown rice.
- Predators are beetles, crickets, spiders, wasps and birds.
- Can jump up to 20 times the length of their body.